

Grade 6 students learned about Greek and Roman history in Social Studies. As an integrated study they explored Greek and Roman myths and myth writing in English. As a culminating writing project for this unit each student was asked to write 3 myths; 1 explaining a natural phenomenon; 1 a myth of choice and 1 that they presented before the class about their chosen god/goddess dressed in character.

Pictured above: Liza Bull (top left) as Aphrodite, Neysa Ouellette (top right) as Hera, Madison Gilbertson (bottom right) as Athena and Emily Coffey (bottom left) as Hekate.